Associate Pastor

In February, due to serious health issues with both my Parents, I prayerfully choose to move my family to New Hampshire. In June, 2010, the church offered me a position as Associate Pastor. As Associate Pastor, I was able to not only backfill for my father in all aspects of the church, but also was able to assist and direct in all:

- Preaching and teaching while pastor is away, needing a break or sick.
- Teaching Adult Sunday School class.
- Leading, organizing and administering of Children's ministry leaders, teachers, Youth Ministry, and Vacation Bible School.
- Building projects and renovations of church properties.

Education
